Saudi Airports Status

Saudi Arabia's airports are operating normally, with no reported disruptions or closures. Flights to and from major hubs including Riyadh, Jeddah, and Dammam are proceeding as scheduled. Travelers are advised to check with their airlines for the latest updates.

What's happening now, at both airports and across the kingdom

Both airports are functioning normally. Flights departing or arriving at these airports are operating as scheduled, with no reported delays or cancellations.

King Khalid International Airport (RUH)	King Abdulaziz International Airport (JED)
Operational	Operational

Saudi Arabia's airports are operating normally, with no reported disruptions or closures. Flights to and from major hubs including Riyadh, Jeddah, and Dammam are proceeding as scheduled. Travelers are advised to check with their airlines for the latest updates.

Flights Tracked	Airports Monitored	Disruptions Reported
1,247	25	0

Last updated: 2026-04-19 08:00 UTC

Flights tracked, by hour

Flights tracked, by hour

Official channels & verified reporting

- Saudi Arabia's airports are operating normally, with no reported disruptions or closures. Flights to and from major hubs including Riyadh, Jeddah, and Dammam are proceeding as scheduled. Travelers are advised to check with their airlines for the latest updates.