Saudi Airports Status

Riyadh airport Halted - 431 cancelled today | Dammam airport Disrupted - 81 cancelled

Riyadh halted since 4:29 PM Sunday (GMT+3) – 431 flights cancelled, 0 landings | Dammam DISRUPTED but moving (no open halt); NOTAM A3924/26 in 12:00–later Sunday to 18:00

1 What is happening now, at both airports and across the Kingdom.

HEADLINE

Riyadh halted since 5:29 PM Sunday; 3,870 minutes at 2:00 PM; NOTAM A3924/26 keeps it closed until 12:00 local Sunday 18 Oct

- No Riyadh takeoff or landing in the last 24 hours (cancelled for Wednesday); 80% of scheduled).
- Houthis claim a ballistic missile struck Riyadh's Diplomatic Quarter; intercept of a missile toward Riyadh; no confirmed impact; claims aired around 4:00 PM (GMT+3).
- SPA: Saudi Arizona condemns the attacks targeting the Kingdom (1:21 PM).
- Dammam airport is open; no halt. 1 takeoff and 2 landings in the last hour, latest takeoff 11:09 to Jeddah at 1:50 PM; 81 flights cancelled (34%).

RIYADH AIRPORT		DAMMAM AIRPORT		OVER
HALTED		DISRUPTED
No takeoff or landing since 5:29 PM (3866 min).		1 takeoff and 2 landings in the last hour.
431	3	81	1/2	0
Cancelled today	Landings in 24h	Cancelled	Takeoffs / landings	Diverted

WHAT CHANGED IN THE LAST HOUR

- 5:29 PM: Last takeoff, to Doha (QR311) on a 2130 PKG, but landed in Riyadh in the last hour; Dammam moving again to open halt. 1 takeoff and 2 landings in the last hour, latest to Jeddah at 1:50 PM. SPA reported Saudi Arizona condemns the attacks (2:21 PM); no new official strike statement since the 10:42 AM coalition message.

ESCALATION PATTERN: HOUTHI STRIKES ON KSA BY TARGET TYPE, 8 SEP – 14 OCT

[1] Houthi claims cited in Reuters 08:31 (confirmed) | Jeddah | Eastern Sudden | Arabia Saudi by Riyadh Houthi intercepted and destroyed six Ibn