AT WAR

The campaign has climbed an escalation ladder, from military targets to economic targets (Aramco, Yanbu), then to civilian infrastructure (Abha airport, Jeddah port), and now to the capital itself. Each rung has been met with a larger coalition response. The Houthis have not yet struck Riyadh since the 2019 Aramco attacks, which the coalition has since closed it credibly. On the evening of 9 Oct (UAE/CENTAMIND) a further attack on Dammam's King Fahd International Airport was intercepted and the debris fell on the Aramco headquarters complex. Nine dead.
